

Gala Dinner

Delegates are invited to attend the banquet at Szara Kazimierz Restaurant.

Szara Kazimierz is an encore performance by the owners of the gracious Szara in the Main Square, and has come as a culinary ornament gracing this historic Jewish enclave. Opened in 2006 in the neighborhood's most prominent square, it has already received a Michelin Recommendation, and the comparison to its elder counterpart have yielded but one answer—just as classy! The feel here is elegant as well, but with a tinge of informality, which fits well with the more relaxed attitudes of this arty, bohemian district. Within its spacious venue the décor is tastefully reflective of the fact that the place promises to deliver the highest quality. Equipped with an elaborate bar, the restaurant can rightfully boast about the quality of its drinks and wonderful coffee. This is indeed the type of place that transforms one's time here into a precious memory.

